An aerial photograph of a tropical beach club. The scene is dominated by a large, circular swimming pool with a thatched-roof hut in the center. The pool is surrounded by a sandy area with several lounge chairs and umbrellas. To the right, there is a dense line of palm trees and other tropical vegetation. In the background, a wide, sandy beach meets the turquoise ocean under a clear blue sky. A dark red banner in the upper right corner contains the text 'Club de Playa Beach Club'.

Club de Playa Beach Club

An aerial photograph of a modern beach club pool. The pool is rectangular with a light blue-green water color. It features several stone arches and pillars made of light-colored stone blocks, some of which are partially submerged in the water. The pool is surrounded by a light-colored concrete deck. There are several lounge chairs with white cushions and small round tables scattered around the pool. The area is landscaped with various plants, including palm trees and tall grasses. In the background, there is a building with a stone facade and a set of stairs leading up to it.
